

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

- 1 1. A semiconductor system comprising:
 - 2 a plurality of contiguous semiconductor devices formed from a semiconductor
 - 3 substrate, where each of said semiconductor devices is separated from
 - 4 an adjacent semiconductor device by a scribe lane;
 - 5 a signal line; and
 - 6 a plurality of electrical connections, each electrically coupling a different one
 - 7 of said plurality of contiguous semiconductor devices to said signal
 - 8 line.
